This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) on a Motion for Interim Relief Pending Consideration of Application filed by Portable Storage and Moving of Columbia, LLC (“Portable Moving” or “Applicant”). By its Amended Application, Portable Moving is seeking the transfer of Class E Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 9737 currently held by Portable Storage of Columbia, LLC (“Portable Storage”) following Portable Moving’s purchase of Portable Storage. In the instant request, Portable Moving is seeking to operate under Certificate No. 9737, while a decision on the transfer of that Certificate under S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-135 is pending before the Commission. The Applicant states that the pending transfer of the Certificate is incident to the sale or lease of the assets of its holder Portable Storage, and it is not being transferred for value or utilized to enhance the value of the other property being transferred.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> As pertinent to the Applicant’s request, S.C. Code Ann. § 58-23-340 (Supp. 2008) prevents the sale, lease, or transfer of a certificate of public convenience and necessity unless it is being transferred incidentally to the sale or lease of property or assets owned or used by a regulated motor carrier, provided the approval of

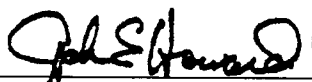

We find that the requested transfer of the Certificate is not for value or utilized to enhance the value of other property transferred. We further find that it is in the public interest to grant the requested interim relief. Therefore, Portable Moving may operate under Class E Certificate No. 9737 pending a decision on the transfer of that Certificate from Portable Storage. We note that Portable Moving is bound by the terms of the Certificate, which restricts moving household goods between points and places in Richland, Lexington, Newberry, and Fairfield Counties.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commission.
